Tuition Agreement

Tuition is due the first school day of each week unless other arrangements have been made. Tuition is required to maintain your child's spot with The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center. Failure to pay tuition fees will result in legal action and disenrollment of your child from The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center. No deductions will be made for missed school days for illness, holidays, vacations, or other absences. If for any reason, you wish to withdraw your child from The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center, a 30-day advance notice is required. If you withdraw your child without a full 30-day notice, full tuition will still be required unless other arrangements have been made.

Illnesses

If your child is sick in accordance with our Illness Policy located in the Parent Handbook, tuition will be required in full for missed days.

Snow Days

The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center will make the call to close for snow days based on a number of factors to include but not limited to; severity of storms, local area School System closings, availability of staff, and local and state infrastructure (e.g. Banks, City Offices, State Departments). The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center staff may choose to open during storms; however, the safety of staff, children and parents may cause The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center to close early. Tuition is required for all snow days, full or half.

Natural Disasters

In the event of a natural disaster (e.g. windstorms, ice storms) that result in The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center closing for an extended period of time, full tuition is required.

The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center

State of Emergencies

In the event that a State of Emergency is declared that includes the Bangor, Maine area, each situation will be evaluated and be taken on a case by case bases. Certain situations may allow for The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center to remain open, but if the safety of children, parents, and staff may be at risk The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center may decide to close. Tuition cost and payment will decided at that time.

Utility Maintenance

Occasionally, due to up-grades to infrastructure in the Bangor area, different utilities departments (e.g. Bangor Water & Sewer) may shut off utilities to The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center facilities. In the event that we lose an essential utility, The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center may be required to close while the utility is being worked on. Tuition will be required for those days.

Holidays and Vacations

The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center observers all Federal Holidays and Patriots day, tuition is required for all holidays.

The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center takes has two vacations in the calendar year planed. Tuition will be required during both time periods.

Extended Absences

If your child will miss school for an extended period (e.g. family vacations) a 14-day notice and full tuition will be required.

Many parents choose to keep their children home during the summer months to coincide with Summer Brake for older siblings and work schedules. If you choose to keep your child home during this time a 30-day notice is required. During this time, you have the following options:

- A. Pay half tuition and hold your child's spot for their expected return date. Arrangements can be made for your child to return as necessary throughout the summer.
- B. Withdraw your child from The Neighborhood Early Childhood Center with no guarantee of a spot for your child in the fall.
